Note: In addition to being a learned and discerning collector of fine antiques all of her life, Ann owned an Antique Shop called AnnTiques in Downtown Bemidji for decades. With her unique knowledge of the history, scarcity, and value of the antique world, she was able to hand pick the best of the best for her personal collection. This is not a compendium of her store inventory that was available to the general buying public...These are the items she deemed worthy for her own home. Most are of museum quality and in excellent condition. There are far more items than I listed here, there is entire garage full of boxed antiques that I neither saw nor inventoried.
